KL bourse closes mixed

BURSA Malaysia ended mixed yesterday with the benchmark index finishing slightly higher, supported by gains in finance and trade and services index-linked stocks, but the overall market was broadly weaker, dealers said.

The benchmark FTSE Bursa Malaysia KLCI (FBM KLCI) ended higher at 1,773.96, up 2.95 points from the 1,771.01 at close on Wednesday.

After opening 3.29 points higher at 1,774.30, the index moved between 1,773.22 and 1,782.54 throughout the day.

Market breadth was negative as losers outpaced gainers 590 to 377, with 376 counters unchanged, 438 untraded and 28 others suspended.

Volume decreased to 2.95 billion units, valued at RM3.17 billion, from the 3.38 billion units, valued at RM2.9 billion, traded on Wednesday.

A dealer said the local bourse's positive performance was in line with most Asian peers, taking the cue from the stronger overnight Wall Street performance, as well as oil prices rally ahead of the OPEC meeting yesterday, which is highly expected to extend output cuts into 2018.

The broader market was weaker, with losers outpacing gainers, but the barometer index remained positive with buying support in finance and trade and services index-linked stocks, he added.

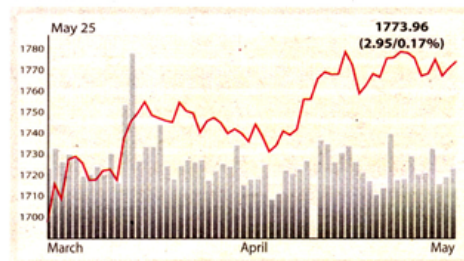

Malayan Banking Bhd gained three sen to RM9.39, Sime Darby Bhd eased two sen to RM9.30, Petronas Chemicals Group Bhd slid four sen to RM7.39, while Tenaga Nasional Bhd and Public Bank Bhd and were flat at RM13.82 and RM20.08 respectively.

Of the actives, AirAsia X Bhd fell 2.5 sen to 42.5 sen, Inta Bina Group Bhd added 5.5 sen to 30.5 sen, DRB-Hicom Bhd gained four sen to RM1.72 while PUC Founder (MSC) Bhd and Borneo Oil Bhd edged up half a sen each to 15.5 sen and 13 sen respectively.

Among other index-linked gainers, CIMB Group Holdings Bhd rose 19 sen to RM6.32, Genting Malaysia Bhd gained 25 sen to RM6.20, Hong Leong Financial Group Bhd jumped 44 sen to RM16.70 and Hap Seng Consolidated Bhd increased 19 sen to RM9.14. — Bernama
